

Spartans, Dons Await Tonight's Grid Battle

By HAL BORCHERT
Spartan Daily Sports Editor

The Spartans come home tonight.

Home to what. Home to face one of the roughest independent elevens on the West Coast. None other than Ed Brown, Ollie Matson and company from the University of San Francisco who already have humiliated our boys 39-2 in the opening game of the season.

It's the fourth rung of a jagged ten rung ladder, the roughest ladder a Spartan team has had to climb in many a year. Tonight at 8 o'clock when kickoff time comes around they'll see what they can do about evening the score with the Dons and bringing up the victory side of the ledger to match the loss column.

Their worthy opponents are currently enjoying one of the best seasons in the history of the school on the hilltop and are rivaled only by College of Pacific in the role of top West Coast independent, Loyola, Santa Clara, and San Jose being lost in the wake.

Our boys believe the Dons are heading for a fall and the Spartans are the guys who want to do the job.

Along the 50-yard line tonight will be 2000-odd white shirted rooters who subconsciously hope that tonight will be The night. Nearly all will be there to see Nimble Ollie Matson score his usual amount of touchdowns with long fancy runs or to watch the needle threading pitching of Quarterback Ed Brown. Like leading lambs to slaughter is placing the Spartans against this Green Wave from the Fog city, senses the crowd.

They'll be there to watch Matson and Brown work but they'll be yelling "Hold that line" and hoping that Coach Bob Bronzan has worked out a defense that will stop the flashy fullback and the completion-happy quarterback from hitting the promised land.

Providing the musical score for the great drama on the gridiron at Spartan Stadium will be the Gold and White uniformed Spartan band under the direction of Robert P. Olson. Reports have it that their performance in Fresno last week rivaled that of the team in a job well done. This week the horn blowers and thumpers have been working on marching formations which they will strut tonight. If, as the band goes, so goes the team, maybe tonight's The night.

At any rate all the color will be at the Stadium for the opening of the 1951 home season — the band, the crowd, the cheerleaders, and the pom pom girls. All are backing an outstanding football team who believe tonight is The night.

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

Vol. 40. SAN JOSE, CALIF., FRIDAY, OCT. 12, 1951 No. 13

State Asks Faculty For Qualifications Of New President

What qualifications should a college president have?

The State Department of Education is asking this question of the faculty at San Jose State college. The request was made by Dr. Roy Simpson, head of the Sacramento department, to aid in naming a successor to our college president, Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie.

This request, explained Dr. MacQuarrie yesterday, is being met by the appointment of a faculty qualifications committee, chosen on a basis of one member representing each of our college divisions.

This mode of local expression follows the pattern voluntarily set by interested persons at both Fresno and Chico State colleges when they were faced with similar situations.

The importance of presidential public relations ability was stressed by Dr. MacQuarrie. A college president, he said, must have the ability to see his educational philosophy and the objectives of the college are understood throughout the entire organization and the region in which his college is located. It must also extend to the legislature, since that body controls the welfare of state colleges.

Dr. MacQuarrie has announced previously that he will retire from the office of college president in August.

Frats to Alter 'Hell Week'

A meeting of all fraternity advisers was held yesterday morning on campus. Problems discussed were: the Western Regional Interfraternity conference, pledging and rushing, organization, social standards, a fraternity-faculty men's banquet, and an all-Greek "help week," Dean of Men Stanley C. Benz announced.

"Although people are generally satisfied with the pledging and rushing scheme as a whole, improvements are now being discussed," he said.

Dean Benz revealed that the Interfraternity Council's committee on pledging and rushing is discussing the problem along with the faculty advisers of the fraternities.

He stated that the important problem of "hell week" was discussed at length by the fraternity advisers. This year San Jose State college's fraternity organizations may follow the example of Indiana university and other colleges in eliminating the traditional hazing of pledges, he said.

This year San Jose State college's fraternity organizations may follow the example of Indiana university and other colleges in eliminating hazing of pledges, he said.

The local fraternities are considering a "help week" instead of a "hell week," Dean Benz announced.

Professors' Paintings Will Be Shown Monday

Twenty-five years of art work will be on view Monday morning in the Reserve Book room when J. Theodore Johnson, associate professor of art, and John Mottram, instructor in art, present a two-man show of a group of their paintings from 1925 to 1951.

The exhibit is the second in a series being shown this year under the auspices of the Fine Arts division, Mr. Warren Faus, publicity director for the exhibition committee, said.

Figure drawings, landscapes, still lifes, pastels, watercolors, and oil portraits will comprise the show, according to Johnson and Mottram.

Mr. Johnson's work dominates the portrait side of the display, while Mr. Mottram's feature presentation is landscapes, with hillside and seashore scenes predominating.

Among the paintings Mr. Johnson will show is an oil study of a French girl which he did in France in 1928. This work drew attention at the Golden Gate exposition in 1939 and 1940 and has been exhibited in almost every museum in the country, Mr. Johnson said.

Students also will see a painting of Mr. Johnson's which took first prize at the All-California Artists showing in Santa Cruz in 1948. A complete list of the awards he has won is given in "Who's Who in America."

Mr. Mottram will also show several paintings which have been on display in large museums. Galleries which have exhibited his work include the Philadelphia Museum of Art, the Virginia Museum of Art, and the San Francisco Museum of Art.

Make Promotions In Campus Police

Appointments to the positions of assistant chief, sergeant and corporal in the student police organization were announced yesterday by Student Chief William C. De Lapp.

Ivan C. Bland has been appointed assistant chief, De Lapp said. Appointed sergeants were Lawrence Hedin, Charles Casey, J. C. May, John Duran, and Peter Hartman.

Student officers promoted to corporal were George Hess, William Wells, Billy Bob Kelly, Peter Gorvad and Larry Otter, the student chief said.

Pay Camp Fee

Today is the deadline for reservations to the Campbell Student Y camp, Oct. 19-21, according to David Cone of the camp planning committee. After today an additional charge of 50 cents will be made.

The Weather

The weather today will be in keeping with the game tonight. Warm around the collar.

After Game Dance

"Gridiron Classic," after-game dance, will be held in the Women's gym immediately following the USF-Spartan encounter tonight, according to Claire Chamberlain, dance chairman. Admission prices will be 50 cents per couple and 35 cents for stags, she said. The dance is being sponsored by the Senior class.

position of Coordinator of Graduate Studies, Dr. James DeVoss, executive dean, said yesterday.

Dean West Hopes Universal ASB Fee Is Accepted

Among the organizations most severely affected by the 1951-52 reduced budget is the Physical Education department which requested a budget of $34,000 and received $27,000.

Glenn Hartranft, head of the PE department said, "We'll probably have to cut out some sports. We can't operate all sports by reducing them proportionately ten percent."

The reduced budget for 1951-52 will affect the activities of all campus organizations if students do not accept universal ASB card measure at the polls, according to Lud Spolyar, ASB president.

"I dislike this budget reduction," said Spolyar. "I'm hoping that the bill will be accepted by a two-thirds vote so that we can give back the activities that will be curtailed by this budget cut."

In acknowledging his support of Assembly Bill 827, which will be presented before the entire student body at an election, Joe H. West, Dean of Students, said:

"The universal fee will help to stabilize the program of student activities. It will make it possible for all students to share the expenses as well as the benefits."

To be sure, some students will benefit more than others, but that is true in practically all forms of taxation.

"This isn't a method of increasing the fee per individual. It will put us in a position where we will be able to organize these student activities efficiently."

Seniors Asked to Make Photo Date

Seniors who have not yet made appointments for their yearbook photographs may do so now at the library arch, according to Jane Scott and Art Moreno, co-editors of LaTorre, the college yearbook. Charge for the photographs is $1.50 plus tax.

The Angelo Butera studio will begin taking the pictures on Monday, Oct. 15. It will require three weeks to complete the operation, Miss Scott said.

Appointments may be made for any time between the hours of 9 a.m.-1 p.m. and 2-4:30 p.m. Less than ten minutes will be required for the taking of each photograph.

Men students must wear white shirts and ties to their appointments, Miss Scott added.

Deadline 3 O'clock

The deadline for students to obtain tickets for tonight's USF-SJSC football game is 3 p.m. today, according to Mrs. Lee Stuck, of the Graduate Manager's office.

Dr. Jensen will begin work under his new title as soon as an office can be established for him.

Tonight's the Night

Tonight in Spartan stadium, San Jose State college meets the test; tonight at 8 p.m., the first home game of the 1951 season will get underway.

It will not be the Golden Raiders down on the field who must prove themselves — they have been in action three times to date, well establishing their fighting spirit.

However, the "big team" — the SJS student body — will be putting in its first appearance after practice scrimmages at Kezar, Stanford and Fresno.

Will it be found wanting?

The 11 men on the field will be doing their best to bring credit to the college. We hope a full-throated roar of encouragement will course from the East side of the field, proving to the Bronzan men that they are not alone in their struggle.

New National Air Society Elects New Officers--Hehir

The National Arnold Air society, a professional fraternity representing the Air Force, now is a reality on the San Jose State college campus, as of last Thursday night when the new group held its first meeting.

According to Warren Hehir, public relations officer, business transactions at the opening meeting were the drawing up of a constitution and by-laws, and the election of officers. Officers elected are: Larry Burnham, squadron commander; J. S. Vidulich, executive officer; Bob Powers, operations officer; Harry Hollyfield, recorder, adjutant; Dale Olson, treasurer; and Warren Hehir, public relations officer. Colonel Howard Brown is adviser for the society.

The Arnold Air society began its history three years ago on the University of Cincinnati campus, and from this original chapter it has grown into a national fraternity consisting of 86 squadrons.

The idea for an air society developed with formation of the Air Force association in 1946. The AFA was an independent civilian air power organization, designated to present the doctrine and needs of the Air Force, and its leader was Jimmy Doolittle.

Interest in the Air Force ROTC was stimulated in June, 1947, when the AFA noticed that 80 colleges had received the Air Force association silver medal, Hehir said. The AFA had proposed an air force comprised of 70 combat units, and when the Arnold Air society was started on the Cincinnati campus, the AFA was impressed by the group. In 1950, the AFA and the Arnold Air society became affiliated organizations.

The Arnold Air society also is acknowledged by the regular Air Force. Having no Air Academy,

Pigskinners Broke; They Need Pigskin

"Lynn Pappy Gouldorf," (otherwise known as Professor W. E. Gould of the Journalism department and coach of the Tijuana A.C. gridders, was a crestfallen man today.

Seems he called his shambling crew together last Saturday for its initial workout in preparation for a tough intra-mural schedule. The brutish pigskinners, mainly members of the Spartan Daily sports staff, showed up all right, but due to one tiny oversight the practice was a complete flop. No one brought a football.

Fullback Harry Beck's 209 net yards rushing against Santa Clara last year is a Spartan high mark. Harry also holds the individual record of most yards rushing in one season, 830 yards, also in 1950.

New Diet System at MSC

Here's a note for all you hefty gals and guys. Food and nutrition research workers at Michigan State college have devised a system under which persons may lose two pounds a week while experiencing no hunger pains or other disturbances.

Michigan State coeds taking part in normal studies ate at a special table for several months. Before the program they ate about 2200 calories a day but the diet permitted only 1600 calories daily. Despite the fewer number of calories the girls reported no hunger.

Vice Squad Raids Frat

Officers of the Los Angeles vice squad closed in on a USC fraternity house last week, but were unable to pin anything on the Greeks due to lack of conclusive evidence. The V-squad men were plainclothes men. They received a telephone tip that gambling was flourishing during the fraternity's "Monte Carlo Night" celebration. The result of the case was that members of the alumni who conducted the affair on a non-profit basis, were released after questioning. Incidentally the plainclothes men ate a quantity of pop corn and sampled other refreshments before they made the pinch.

Some definitions that you will probably never find in a copy of that best seller entitled "Webster's" appeared in a recent issue of the Santa Clara under the title of Deft-nitions:

The feminine bachelor—a lady-in-waiting.

Old age—that which everyone should respect, especially the bottled.

Absend-minded professor—One who lectures to his steak and cuts his classes.

Job For Girls

The top award winning ad of the week is one that appeared in a recent issue of the Michigan State college News.

It read, "Wanted, girls to sell wolverines in the men's dormitories."

Just to clarify the matter, the Wolverine, which should be spelled with a capital W, is the MSC yearbook.

California Frosh Must Obey Ten Commandments, Sophs

The University of California is one institution at which freshmen must put up with certain guff. Following are the commandments which Berkeley frosh must adhere to.

1. Thou shalt wear at all times that insignificant combination blue pancake and gold button known as the "dink."

2. Thou shalt not reef thy "panties" or listen to "Captain Marvel" on the radio.

3. No high school paraphernalia will be tolerated and thou shalt not bluster ostentatiously about childhood achievements.

4. Thou shalt not pose as a Big Man on Campus.

5. Thou shalt religiously pack as much wood to all rallies as thy puny muscles can carry.

6. Physical examinations are a necessity and must be endured without childhood tears. Hadacol may be used as a bracer.

7. Freshies must learn that saddles, levis and such do not constitute the proper full dress and should be worn only at a brawl.

8. No Freshies will offend the dignity of any Class of "54" by daubing green paint on the big C.

9. No erstwhile pumpkinheads shall ever be seen trespassing on the ever-so-sacred Sophomore lawn.

10. Thou shalt live in most reverential awe and undiluted admiration of thy superiors, the all-powerful, mighty and illustrious Class of "54."

Quarterback Gene Menges' 16 touchdown passes in 1949 is an all-time San Jose grid record. Gene also holds the college's seasonal marks in: most yards passing, 1490; most passes attempted, 182; and the most completions, 99, all made in 1949.

WHEN DIANE and Ed McGowen visited 20th Century Fox studio in Hollywood, they were introduced to David Wayne, the star of "Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie". Wayne plays a barber in the picture. Diane recently was named the winner of the "Bride of Paradise" national contest, received the all-expenses paid honeymoon trip to Hollywood as one of her gifts. ## McGowen's Bride Wins National Beauty Contest

By ERNESTINE VOSPER

Pretty Diane Ford had just been named the winner of a national contest to find the loveliest bride of the year, before she became the wife of her high school sweetheart, Edward McGowen, now a junior police major at San Jose State college. The marriage ceremony was performed Sept. 31 in First Methodist church in Campbell.

Neither Diane nor Ed had heard of the "Bride of Paradise" national contest until last January, when Ed purchased at Montgomery Jewelers in San Jose an engagement ring for Diane, then his fiancée. The manager of the store asked if he could enter a picture of Diane in a local beauty contest for future brides.

Diane won the local contest, and her picture was sent to New York to compete with entries from all over the United States. The photo won for her the coveted title of "Bride of Paradise."

As winner, Diane received a diamond ring, a wardrobe, including a bridal gown, and an all-expenses paid honeymoon to Hollywood.

After a wedding reception held in Los Gatos, the newlyweds left for southern California.

"We had a honeymoon suite on the top floor of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles," Ed said, "and we were treated like royalty."

The couple caught a glimpse into the "inside workings" of the movie industry, when they toured the 20th Century Fox studios.

"We had lunch at the studio commissary where we saw movie stars Jeanne Crain, Debra Paget, and Dan Dailey," Ed remarked.

The McGowen's also saw the filming of the production "Lydia Bailey," and were introduced to its star, Dale Robertson. Later that day they had their pictures taken with movie comedian, David Wayne.

Diane and Ed also visited the famous Farmers' Market, the Brown Derby restaurant, and the Coconut Grove nightclub.

Asked to comment on the trip to the movie colony, Ed grinned and said:

"I thought our week in Hollywood wonderful, until I got back to San Jose. Then one of my college friends, a business major, informed me that I would probably have to pay the taxes for the trips' expenses. If I do, I'll certainly have financial worries at the end of the year."

Mrs. Beulah Faul, new Gamma Phi Beta housemother, will be honored at a formal tea on Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. at the sorority house, according to Margie Herndon, social chairman. Mrs. Faul will be presented to faculty members and representatives from the social fraternities.

Mrs. Faul; Mrs. Keith, sorority alumnae treasurer; and Phyllis Thom, house president, will receive the guests. Formally attired Gamma Phi Betas will act as hostesses. Chairman of the social affair is Jane Alden.

Mrs. Rush Hendricks, new housemother for Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, was honored at a tea given Wednesday afternoon at the chapter house. Before coming to San Jose State college, Mrs. Hendricks was a housemother at the University of California. A special invitation to the tea was extended to all other house mothers and sorority presidents.

Spartan Chi Plans After-Game Fest

An after-game gathering of Spartan Chi members and their guests will meet tomorrow for an evening of dancing at the Student Union. Refreshments and entertainment will highlight the evening, reports Bette Joke, Spartan Chi publicity chairman. Bea Bond will serve as refreshment chairman, and Kenny Shimasaka will be MC for the entertainment program.

Sorority Sidelights

By JOANNE PRATT

They Sang And Sang

The Theta Chi tribe gathered at the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house Monday evening for an informal two-hour song fest. The Kappas also were entertained by the talented vocal stylings of Dick Ganzert, Jack Cassidy and Marv Braunstein.

A New Addition

Before the USF football game tonight AOPis and their dates will dine at the sorority chapter house, which was redecorated during the summer months. There has been also an addition to the house in the form of a new wing.

Reforming?

After the Fresno game Friday evening several DSGs and dates dropped in for an informal party at Lucretia Tuhy's apartment. Lucretia, who graduated from SJS last June, now is doing social work in Fresno.

Everybody Gets Into the Act

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Gamma sorority houses were serenaded Monday evening by the entire Kappa Alpha membership following announcement of pinnings of three brothers. Marlene Zisch, KKG, was pinned by Jay Brown, Mary Pahl, DG, now is wearing Bruce Summers pin, and Marilyn Cos, DG, is sporting Stan Gum's pin.

The Long Way Home

Don Camp, Lambda Chi Alpha president, and Howard Ross, social affairs chairman, along with the fraternity silverware, were whisked away to a Santa Cruz mountain hideaway by the spring quarter pledge class last Thursday night. Camp and Ross made their escape and straggled 14 miles to the nearest telephone to contact anxious brothers.

Alpha Chi Omega and Chi Omega sororities came to the Lambda Chi rescue with knives, forks and spoons.

Spring quarter pledges are Bruce Payne, Bill Coleman, Bob Hambly, Church Mills, Frank Dains, and Fred Custer.

Full House

When Gerrie Lopes attended the Alphi Chi Omega national convention in Virginia this summer, she extended a cordial invitation to sorority sisters from Southern California to visit the AXO home at San Jose. Was Gerrie surprised when 20 Alphi Chi's from UCLA accepted her invitation! When the UCLA Greeks arrive here Saturday for the Stanford-UCLA game, San Jose gals will take over the local park benches for the weekend.

Guilty!

Jackie Larson, AOPi and student court clerk, was found guilty of wearing the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity pin belonging to Chief Justice Harlow Lloyd.

Alpha Chi Omega Plans Celebration Of Founder's Day

Alpha Chi Omega will hold open house for alumnae and guests Monday evening in honor of the anniversary of the founding of the national sorority, reports Roberta Stine, social chairman.

Alpha Chi Omega sorority was started as a musical honorary society at DePauw University in Indiana on Oct. 15, 1885. Gamma Eta chapter of Alpha Chi Omega at San Jose State college "went national" in the fall of 1948.

Tennis Shoes To Be in Style

Tennis shoes will be in style at next Tuesday's meeting of Spartan Spinners, the college folk-dancing group, according to Dr. Carl Duncan, adviser to the organization.

Dr. Duncan states that composition heels on shoes are marking the floor in the Women's gym and that soft sole shoes will be a requirement from now on.

The Founders' Day banquet, an annual affair, is being sponsored by the alumnae chapter, and more than 100 persons are expected to attend, according to Mrs. Alice Walker, chairman for the gala occasion.

Mrs. Woodson Linn will be toastmistress for the program and will introduce the guests, who will include Mrs. Edgarita Wood, province vice president; Miss Martha Thomas, chapter adviser; Mrs. Jessie LeGros, housemother; Mrs. Shirley Miner, president of the alumnae; and Miss Patricia Flanagan, president of Delta Chi.

Also honored will be new initiates Jacqueline Born and Barbara Metherall. They will be introduced by Carol Larson, pledge trainer.

The program theme is "Highlights from Kappa Years" and "Blue and Blue" is the decoration theme. Skits will be presented by both the active and the alumnae groups.

Mrs. Franz Niederauer, alumnae scholarship chairman, will present the scholarship tray to the girl having the highest scholastic average for the past year. The tray was presented to Delta Chi chapter by the San Jose Alumnae association and is engraved each year with the name of the girl to whom it is presented.

Air Force Will Organize Thirty Reserve Groups

Washington, Oct. 11 (UP)—The Air Force outlined yesterday a $29,500,000 construction program for facilities to train 30 new organized reserve wings at 30 airfields throughout the nation.

The 30 new reserve wings—totaling 60,000 officers and men—will more than replace the 25 wings called up since the Korean outbreak. The nation had only 25 reserve wings when the Korean fighting started.

The Air Force's reserve program, already underway, is scheduled to be in full swing by next July 1, when all 30 wings are slated to be at full strength in both men and planes.

The Air Force already has set up 23 reserve wings and is recruiting volunteers to build them up to full complements of 1985 officers and men each.

Nine air-bases where air reserve training centers have been set up had adequate facilities and will not need additional construction to handle the reserve wings.

Three naval air stations are being used by the Air Force.

Congress has authorized spending of $29,500,000 for construction at 21 airfields.

The $4,450,420 Supplementary Military Appropriation bill pending in Congress includes $15,000,000 for air reserve training centers. The Air Force will ask for the remaining $14,500,000 later.

The Air Force clamped administrative censorship on the location of six of the new reserve training centers. A spokesman said that although security was not involved, even the general areas selected for the six were being withheld because a decision as to the specific airports was not definite.

L.A. Rules Special Credential No Good

A special secondary credential in business education or men's and women's physical education no longer qualifies a graduate to teach in Los Angeles city schools, Miss Doris Robinson, director of teacher placement, said yesterday. Mrs. Robinson received the new ruling early this week from Mrs. Ross T. Steller, superintendent of secondary education in Los Angeles city schools. "This is part of a general trend on the part of school administrators to require a general secondary credential, a five-year course," she said.

Giant Manager Offered Bribe During Series M/Sgt. Horner Is Recalled to Reserve Rank

New York, Oct. 11—(UP)—Leo Durocher was offered a $15,000 bribe to throw "the next three games" of the World Series on Oct. 6 when his New York Giants were leading the Series two games to one, it was learned today. At the same time his wife, actress Laraine Day, was threatened.

"There's $15,000 for you and your team if you manage to lose the next three games," an anonymous letter the Giants' manager received said. "If you are interested call (a telephone number was listed here). If you want to keep Laraine, better keep your mouth shut."

The letter, turned over to Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick before yesterday's game, was typewritten on Strand hotel (Atlantic City, N.J.) stationery. It was postmarked Oct. 6, from Fresh Meadows, L.I., and had been on Durocher's desk several days along with thousands of other letters before being opened.

It was Mrs. Durocher who took the matter up with Frick. Durocher's reaction was that this was the work of a crank and the entire matter should be ignored. However, in discussing the letter with his wife, he agreed the Commissioner should be informed of the matter.

Frick was not immediately available for comment.

Acoustic Tile Put in To Cut Cacophony

Acoustic tile now is being installed in the ceilings of the main floor hallways in the Home Economics building, Byron Bollinger, college superintendent of buildings and grounds, has announced.

The reason for the installation is to subdue the sounds from the child training classes and the noise from the cafeteria so that it will not disturb the other students in the building, he said.

Mr. Bollinger stated that the work will be completed next week. He revealed that the cost of the installation of the acoustic tile will be approximately $990.

Transfer orders, which are expected to take effect within a month, have been received for M/Sgt. Jack L. Horner, Col. James J. Hea, commander of the college's ROTC unit, said yesterday.

According to Col. Hea, the orders state Sgt. Horned will be returned to his commission as Captain in the Ordnance reserve.

Sgt. Horner first came to San Jose State college in the fall quarter of 1949.

Sgt. Horner explained that he received his commission in 1943, after which he served for a time in Virginia. He was then transferred to the European theater of operations, where he served in an escort guard section in southern France. He returned to this country in 1945 and was sent to Hawaii, where he served for three years.

In 1948 he was reduced to his present classification and sent to serve at Benicia arsenal until he came to San Jose.

Othello Stars Will Be Heard On Radio Show

Little Theater stars will be on the air tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock as the second "Spartan Review" is broadcast over station KLOK. Hugh Heller, co-director of the show, said yesterday.

The stars are Jerry Charlebois, in the title role of the current campus production "Othello", Donna Wagner as Desdemonda, and Richard Risso as Iago. Ellen Healey and Heller will conduct the interview.

"All Spartans who drop out to see the show will be served coffee and doughnuts," Heller said. This is a special offering of the "Brunch Club" section of the program.

Musical moments will be presented by the Dick Cresta sextette, with Gale Smiley at the piano, Mac Martin, bass; Ed Swaney, drums; Ron Wren, guitar; and John Allegretti, trombone. Heller will sing "When You're Smilin'" with their accompaniment. The group also will play several strictly instrumental numbers.

Merle Rossman is writer and producer of the show.

Ask Pay Boost for GIs

Washington, Oct. 11—(UP)—Secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett asked Congress today to raise servicemen's pay 10 per cent across the board to bring service wages "back into harmony" with those paid by business and industry.

Lovett was the first witness as a House Armed Services subcommittee opened hearings on the new military pay bill.

Lovett noted that the cost of living has increased 10 per cent since 1949. He added that his department is "doing everything in our power" to avoid increasing its own cost to the government.

But, he said, the servicemen's pay raise is "one item of mobilization expense that is essential."

The secretary pointed out that Congress is on the verge of granting wage increases to civilian employees. A raise for servicemen is necessary therefore, to "sustain their morale in the light of increases granted to employees in industry and others in government," he said.

The bill would cost more than $800,000,000 a year. In addition to boosting base pay it would increase subsistence and quarters allowances 10 per cent.

Enrollment Is Near 700 In SJS Evening Classes

Enrollment in evening classes offered during the fall quarter is near the 700 mark, Miss Viola Palmer, admissions officer, announced yesterday.

Students attending night classes include regular and full time students, limited students of college age and adults who are taking advantage of courses closely related to their day-time employment. The number of persons enrolled in more than one evening class is relatively small, Miss Palmer reported.

Evening classes are being offered in the following college departments: Business, education, engineering, English, industrial arts (in cooperation with natural science), mathematics, physical education and psychology.

Courses in real estate and insurance taught by Dr. C. L. Sutfeld and in office management taught by Dr. Willard J. Saunders, both of the Business department, are among those with the largest enrollments. Nearly 200 are enrolled in courses taught by Dr. James E. Curtis, Dr. Elmer E. Stauffebach, Mrs. Grace Rowe and Miss Frances E. Gulland.

The courses in engineering have attracted substantial enrollments, Miss Palmer said. They are taught by R. G. Rymer of the Hiller Helicopter company, Al Wolff of Food Machinery company, and by Norman O. Gunderson and Dr. Jesse M. Zimmerman of the Engineering department.

Dr. Esther Shephard of the English department is teaching a course in romanticism and Francis Croft of the Industrial Arts department is instructing 35 students in a Natural Science department-course in gemology.

Dr. Richard Purdy of the Mathematics department is conducting a workshop in teaching elementary mathematics for school teachers. Mrs. Helen Cooperider of the Women's Physical Education department is instructing 73 students in social dancing, and Dr. Elizabeth Prange, also of that department, conducts a course in the psychology of exercise.

Five evening courses are offered by the Psychology department with Dr. Harry Fitch, Dr. Ruth

Miss Viola Palmer

Tiedeman and Dr. Arturo Fallico as instructors.

While it is now too late to enroll in these evening courses, Miss Palmer said, most of them will be continued in the winter quarter beginning Jan. 3.

Vehicle Dept. To Be Closed On Saturdays

Students with car registration or driving test problems soon will not be able to take them to the office of the Department of Motor Vehicles on Saturdays, according to a bulletin received from the state office by Miss Doris Robinson, director of teacher placement.

All offices of the department will be closed Saturdays, beginning Nov. 3. Saturday morning service still can be obtained between 8 p.m. and 12 noon until Oct. 27.

An exception to the Saturday closing will be made during the annual registration renewal period Jan. 2 through Feb. 4.

Asks for Painter To Complete Job

With half of the Student Y still sporting tattle-tale-gray, Dave Beutke, student Y president, is asking for volunteers to swing a paint brush tomorrow and help complete the painting project begun last week.

"The cleaning of gutters and cutting and painting about the porch was finished last weekend and only smooth surface is left," Beutke said.

Students are asked to bring brushes and ladders. Paint is being furnished by the Student Y advisory board.

Work will begin at 8:30 a.m. Lunch again will be served. Helpers may come at any time and are not required to stay all day.

Dropping Deadline

Deadline for dropping classes is Oct. 19, according to the Registrar's office. Drop cards may be picked up at the Registrar's office.

Who's Who? Name Trouble Plagues Jinx

What's in a name?

Among the things most people find are humor, puzzlement, and historical significance. But to Julian Crawford "Jinx" Johnson, Jr., a name can also be full of complications.

Jinx's father also attends San Jose State college. He is Julian Crawford, Sr., a freshman psychology major.

On registration day, Jinx, a senior social science major, was given a freshman booklet. He argued with the bewildered registrars for 10 minutes before he could convince them that they had the wrong man.

Since that trying experience, Jinx identifies all his letters to the Registrar's office in this manner: Julian Crawford Johnson, Jr. No. 2.

Both father and son were in the Navy during World War II. Johnson, Sr., was a hospital corps lieutenant stationed at the Oak Knoll naval base. Jinx was a pharmacist's mate third class in the hospital corps at Mare Island naval station at nearby Vallejo.

Jinx's father retired from the Navy last October after 30 years of service. Besides his college studies, he has a night watchman's job in Hayward to keep him busy. Because of their different schedule of classes, Jinx has not seen his father since the quarter began.

Jinx lives in Spartan City. As student body equipment custodian, he plays records at college dances and sets up the public address system at football games.

A member of Alpha Phi Omega fraternity, Jinx is currently "sweating out" an emotional ordeal. His fraternity brothers are trying to pledge his father!

SJS Students Plan High School Course

"Safety Education," a course of study prepared by graduate students in Education 278, is being introduced in various high schools in the valley as a semester class, Dr. George G. Bruntz, professor of history, announced yesterday.

Several high school executives, including Mr. Douglas Helm, vice principal of the Los Gatos Union high school, suggested the need for the study of safety education in secondary schools, Dr. Bruntz said.

As a result of these requests, the Education 278 class, under the direction of Dr. Bruntz, developed such a study during the summer session.

"Safety Education" is a course designed for the high sophomore or low junior semester of high school, Dr. Bruntz added. It is a class in which all phases of safety, in the home and the community, will be discussed.

Using Spare Saturdays To Construct Own Ship

"Sailing, sailing, over the bounding main . . ."

Sometime within the next three years, that song will be hummed by two instructors as they cruise through the waters of San Francisco bay.

Jim E. Stevenson, industrial arts instructor, and Roger Condon, who teaches art part-time, are the prospective week-end sailors.

The two men are working doggedly to finish a 34-foot ketch. According to Noah Webster, a ketch is "a fore-and-aft rigged vessel with mainmast and mizzenmast, similar to a yawl, but with mizzenmast stepped farther forward and a larger mizzen."

Except for the sails, which they will buy, the two instructors are making and fitting every inch of the vessel. When completed, the boat will weigh 10½ tons. A converted 60-horsepower jeep engine will provide locomotion on "calm" days.

A mutual fondness for sailing prompted Messrs. Stevenson and Condon to begin their enormous task. "We wanted to buy a boat, but the price of approximately $12,000 was too high," stated Mr. Stevenson. "So we decided to build one ourselves. It will probably add up to a 60 per cent saving."

Construction on the craft began three years ago. Original estimates foresaw completion in six years. The vessel is more than half planked already so work is progressing ahead of schedule.

"Considering that we work on the boat but one day a week, Saturday, we feel the boat is coming along nicely," said Mr. Stevenson.

The sea is not entirely foreign to the two builders. During World War II, Mr. Condon served as a chief boatswain's mate in the Navy and Mr. Stevenson built torpedo tube mounts at the Joshua-Hendy Iron Works in Sunnyvale. Mr. Stevenson has also built a number of small boats in the past.

Pleasure cruises to southern California and fishing trips to the Pacific Northwest are included in the future plans of the duo. Also planned are lively pursuits of the elusive striped-bass on the San Joaquin and Sacramento rivers.

SJS Water Polo Men Meet Broncos Today

Coach Charley Walker's water polo team will test the Santa Clara Bronco mermen today at 4 p.m. in the latter's Seifert gym pool.

The Spartans will be out to even a one loss record with a victory over their cross-city rivals. In last week's opening meet San Jose dropped a 13 to 4 decision to Stanford. For the Broncos it will be the initial test of the season. Santa Clara will pool the same team that the Spartans whipped twice last year by 10-3 and 6-1 margins.

Mentor Walker expresses a pessimistic outlook for the match, as three of his first-string players are lost for today's action. Guard Gerard Bright has traded his swim trunks for the khaki garb of the U.S. Army this week, while Don Lee and Keith Endersby are both beached with injuries. Of the two only Lee may see limited action. The latter is definitely out with a knee injury, Walker indicated.

Filling out the vacated guard spots along with Chesley Douglas will be Bill Finch and either Dick Engfer or Bob Filler. Jack Hibner will start as goalie, with Chuck Hoppe spelling his replacement. At forwards team captain Fred Postal, Chet Keil and Taylor Hathaway, who tallied two goals against the Indians last week, are scheduled to open.

The two teams will meet later in the season in a return match in Spartan pool, Nov. 16.

Other Scribes; Has Rousing .789 Mark

Bill Weldy took over leadership in the grid selections last week with a seven won-two lost selection. Bill now leads the sports scribes, with a .789 average for the season.

Roy Hurlbert, who only had one miss two weeks ago, dropped the ball last week and came up with only five correct predictions. Roy's average for the season is now .736.

Bringing up the rear are Dick Rutherford and Hal Borchert, who have an average of .632. Both could pick only five winners last week but the Sports Editor got some consolation in choosing Stanford over Michigan.

Guest selector for this week is Carl Fernandes, former Sports Editor of the Spartan Daily. Carl's selection of Pennsylvania over Princeton has the rest of the prognosticators a little snowed, but to each his own.

Entries in 'Mural
Football League
Completed Today

Today is positively the last day in which to submit entries for the Intramural football league, according to Bill Perry, intramural athletic director. An extension was made today so that every campus organization which wished to join would have ample time.

Nineteen organizations have already signed up for this pigskin season. Twelve of the teams entered are fraternity clubs and seven are independents. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, last year's champion, heads the list of fraternity entrants.

Persons interested in officiating during the intramural season are asked to contact Perry. Officials will be paid a nominal fee of $1 per game, according to the intramural director.

Inter-Fraternity teams: Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Phi Sigma Kappa, Lambda Chi Alpha, Theta Chi, Theta Xi, Sigma Pi, Alpha tau Omega, Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Phi, and Pi Kappa Alpha.

Independent teams: Newman Club, Tijuana A.C., Delta Upsilon, Kappa Tau, Chi Pi Sigma, 485 Club, and "B" Town Bombers.

Spartan cross country coach Don Bryant will get an indication of what his team may do during the coming season during an intrasquad meet which will be held this afternoon at 4 p.m. on the cross country course near Spartan stadium.

Cross country fans have an added treat in store for them as Dore Purdy, former SJS track and cross country star, will be competing unattached. Purdy is working out with the Spartans to keep in shape for possible Olympic competition next summer.

The Spartans have been divided into two teams, with Paul Jennings and Bob McMullen serving as captains. Both captains are optimistic over their team's chances of victory.

Purdy, who has been undefeated on the home course for the past three years, will rule as individual favorite. Pointing for an upset win over the champ are McMullen, the SJS mile record holder; Joe Tyler, two mile transfer star from Los Angeles; Larry Purley, freshman star who placed third in the state meet last season; and veterans Jennings, Paul Bowen, Bob Weber and Al Weber.

Frosh Capture 6-5
Water Polo Match

Putting on a one man show, forward Mark Setlow scored all his teams points to lead the San Jose State Freshman water polo team to a 6 to 5 victory over Burlingame High yesterday at the loser's pool.

Tied at one all at the end of the first quarter Setlow tallied three goals in the second period to send the Spartan frosh into a 4 to 1 halftime advantage.

Burlingame shot into a temporary lead in the third quarter as Coach Charley Walker played his entire 14 man squad. With Setlow scoring twice in the final period the Frosh captured their initial victory of the season.

It evened the Frosh slate at one win and a single loss. Sequoia High dropped the Spartan Babes in last week's opener at Redwood City.

Setting up Setlow for his grand slam were first stringers Nort Thornton, Ralph O'Harran and Chuck Gorman at guards; Don Hibner, goalie; and Jay Flood and Jean Broderick, forwards.

Score by quarters: 1 2 3 4

Rifle Squad to Meet
Ohio Team via Mail

San Jose State college's Air Force ROTC rifle team will fire a postal match with Ohio Wesleyan University of Delaware, Ohio, during the week of Oct. 20, according to M/Sgt. Vincent Staniszwski, coach of Air Force ROTC, ROTC and varsity rifle teams.

During a postal match each of the competing teams remain at home and mail the results of their shooting to each other.

Coach Staniszwski expressed his pleasure over the "splendid turnout" of rifle team members so far this season.

The following cadets are requested to contact him at either the rifle range or during the drill period today. Sgt. Staniszwski said: Cadets Gordan E. McLeod, Jerry Vidulich and Bob Powers.

"We would also like to hear from various sportsmen or rifle teams in the San Jose area to arrange for possible matches with them," the rifle team coach declared. Any group interested in competing with the Air Force rifle team may get additional information by writing to: Manager of Spartan rifle range, c/o Air Force ROTC, Div. ## Golden Raiders Nurse Upset Hopes; Hamilton, Rice Stand by For Doubtful Starter Aplanalp

By ROY HURLBERT

Unquestionably the greatest team in USF's 27 year football history hits Spartan stadium tonight to complete a two-game contract with Coach Bob Bronzan's Golden Raiders. Four weeks ago the Dons hammered the Spartans, 39-2, with a pounding outburst that had folks shaking in their seats. But tonight on their home turf, the Spartans hope to surprise an expected capacity crowd when they tackle the heavy favored visitors. Unbeaten in three games and hardly threatened, the Hilltoppers possess a formidable record. Picked as the king of the major coast independents, though COP looms on the valley horizon, Coach Joe Kuharich's eleven is rolling in high gear.

They'll be ship-shape tonight with all hands on deck. And everybody from ever-dangerous Ollie Matson, Ed Brown on down the line are set for 60 minutes if necessary.

Bronzan, for his part, wishes the game were a week away, for the Spartans are hampered by injuries and won't be at full strength for a possible upset.

Aplanalp Doubtful

Quarterback Lynn Aplanalp, the team's best director, is listed as doubtful because of a virus-infected right eye. Also to Bronzan's chagrin, the report came yesterday that main linbacker Dick Bondelle has torn knee ligaments and he's out for two weeks. Bruce Halladay, another linbacker, returns next week.

Aplanalp ran through sweat-suit drills yesterday wearing dark glasses. He could start but it's likely Jerry Hamilton will get the call with Larry Rice on hand to rotate the QB assignment.

Tackles Sal Cardinali and George Porter have returned from the injury list along with Guard Dempsey Farrier.

Bronzan's offense, which was born in the close scramble with Stanford and took high gear last week in Fresno, is ready to go full blast this evening if the head man gets the right man at the QB post. Frank Morriss, Bobby Osborn, Gibby Mendonsa and Matthews' lads, Al and Larry, should give the stiff Don defensive unit it's roughest test to date.

And the USF defenders are pretty good, too. With 10 seniors in 11 positions, the Dons have the best defensive record in the nation, having limited SJS, Idaho and the Camp Pendleton Marines to an average of 24 yards on the ground. Kuharich's henchmen rank third in the nation in passing and fifth in total offense.

Hilltop Bad Boys

Gino Marchetti, Vince Tringali, Greg Hillig, Louis Stephens and one of the West's best linebackers, Burl Toler, are the collegiate version of the Chicago Bears. They're big and tough.

Fleet footed Matson is a cousin we'd like to forget. He could be the difference tonight and his San Jose quota is two t.d.'s a game. If he's checked, then the outcome might be a bit reversed. The 203 pound All-America candidate is the West's leading ground gainer with seven touchdowns and 489 yards.

Field general Brown can throw with the best in the business. He wrecked the Spartans with four six-point pitches in the 39-2 rout. Brown has some swift and dependable receivers in Merrill Peacock, Matson, Joe Scudero, George Carley and his other end, Bob St. Clair. Kuharich has plenty of capable targets for flat-passing and flanker plays.

There's an old saying about experience always winning out. The Dons are a mature, veteran outfit. Bronzan has five juniors and two sophomores on offense and three juniors, three sophs and a freshman on the defensive unit. First stringers, too!

This factor, Mr. Matson and the injuries combine to justify the betting odds.

LARRY and AL MATTHEWS,
San Jose State College

A TIP-TOP BROTHER combination of Larry and Al Matthews will be on hand tonight to give the San Francisco Dons a double dose of fine running. The brothers from Monterey are both capable of breaking loose at any time and are adept pass receivers.

USF Leads Series With Spartans, 7-2

Tonight's Don-Spartan tilt represents the tenth time the two teams have engaged in 60 minutes of tackling and blocking.

On the small end of the betting odds this evening, the Golden Raiders also trail in the series, 7-2.

The Dons have won the last six games with the athletes from Washington Square.

USF and SJS inaugurated things back in 1936 with the San Franciscans taking a 13-0 victory. The Spartans triumphed in 1939, 19-6, and captured their only other win in 1940, 7-6.

Leads Spartan TD Parade

FACED WITH THE prospect of trying to crack USE's stout defensive line tonight is Big Frank Morriss, Spartan fullback and Coach Bob Bronzan's leading ground gainer and scorer. . . . Morriss, a senior P.E. major from Los Angeles, scored four touchdowns at Fresno and hit the end zone for another six points against Stanford. He has a per-play carry average of 8.6 yards with a total of 120 yards in 14 trips with the ball. Morriss' 30 points is seconded by Bob Osborne's 12.

Brown to Peacock-Scudero-St. Clair?

OUT TO APPROACH his first-game effort against the Spartans this year, Don Quarterback Eddie Brown jumps up and gives a tip-off on what he'll be doing tonight against the Golden Raiders in Spartan stadium. The elongated USE signal-caller hurled four touchdown passes against the Bronzanmen in San Francisco last month as the Spartans were shellacked, 39-2. In two games to date, the kid from Hartnell J.C. has 28 completions in 52 pass attempts for 442. He gives his big pal, Ollie Matson, a chance to rest once in awhile. Together, they're dynamite. A back injury kept Brown on the bench during their 26-0 win over Camp Pendleton's Marines Sunday in Kezar. Lanky Ed is one of ten seniors in Coach Joe Kuharich's offensive unit.

Spartan Sportscrap

by
The Staffers

The California Collegiate Athletic association, with which SJS was formerly affiliated, has done away with spring football practice. The vote for elimination of spring practice was unanimous. Athletic Director A. O. Duer of Pepperdine college stated the action was taken in a positive effort to reduce pressure on the football coaches and players.

A boxing match between the University of Minnesota and SJS now is in the tentative stage. If the Gophers come to Washington Square they probably will bring a team composed of new men. Coach Ray Chisholm is sure of the services of but two lettermen, Neil Ofsthun, who defeated SJS's "Mac" Martinez last season, and Pete Lee. Ron Raveling, Gopher heavyweight, may pass up his final year of eligibility.

Quick Quote

So goes Stanford, so goes the Golden Raiders.

The Indians picked up prestige in bouncing Michigan last week, 23-13, adding a little more weight to the Spartan's 26-13 showing against them two weeks ago.

Forty-Niner Line Coach Phil Bengston, after watching Penn blast Dartmouth last week, remarked, "I think San Jose State could whip 'em both." He meant Penn and Dartmouth. Sarcas-tically or not, Bengston said something. Should we think California had a pushover in the Quakers at 35-0? And was Stan-ford off against the Spartans?

We say no to both queries, be-lieving California is great as tabbed and Bob Bronzan's boys on their best day would give improved Stanford another uneasy afternoon as they did in Palo Alto.

Big Game Hunters

The story of six who came back or "beating-the-brush" can be de-scribed of the northwest expedi-tion headed by Dee Portal, boxing coach. The head man accom-ppanied by five physical education majors went into the wilds of Las-sen county for a weekend of hunt-ing. But after two days of every-thing but hunting the expedition returned. It seems P.E. major Ray Silva's car broke down in the middle of nowhere and Portal was sent out to beat-the-bushes for, of all things, a garage. It was a good thing the Spartan mentor is well known in the area for his San Jose boxing teams or the six might still be stranded in the northern wilds.

P.S.—In passing, Bill Woods, senior P.E. major, shot the only deer.

Tower Chimes Ring Today To Promote Spartan Spirit

By LLOYD BROWN

The chimes which will ring out from the tower at 12:15 o'clock today may become a permanent part of the campus spirit.

Since their installation in 1946 the carillon bells have been played so seldom that they almost are strangers on campus. The bells should be heard more often.

President T. W. MacQuarrie has suggested that a member of the student body be chosen as custodian of the chimes so a schedule might be contrived whereby they would be heard at regular intervals.

The chimes are the brain-child of Lee Ross, president of the 1946 spring graduating class.

Ross thought chimes for Homecoming would be in order. He and Dr. Robert Rhodes, then assistant professor of biology and now a dean at Long Beach State college, began a movement to secure carillon bells.

The type of bells that Ross and Dr. Rhodes wanted were made in Philadelphia, so a west coast agent for the firm was contacted. The bells were priced at $3600.

Dr. Rhodes told the agent that the class had scraped the bottom of the barrel and it was $2800 or no sale. The agent agreed to the lower rate, but said the chimes could not be installed before Homecoming.

Again Dr. Rhodes put his foot down. "No bells for Homecoming, no bells at all," he told the agent.

The agent contacted Philadelphia and learned that a set of carillon bells such as SJS wanted were on the way to a church in Seattle. The agent felt the church in Seattle could wait, so went north, intercepted the bells, and diverted them to San Jose.

Today the chimes will be ded-

THE BELLS, BELLS, BELLS—President T. W. MacQuarrie looks on as Helen Kimzey prepares to play the college carillon bells. Use of the speaker over Helen's head is the only way in which she can hear the chimes while she is playing. President MacQuarrie hopes that the chimes will become a more familiar symbol of unity on the campus.

icated to school spirit and to the proposition that they themselves may have a stronger voice in affairs.

The chimes will be played by Helen Kimzey, a senior piano major in education.

She explains that the chimes are played from a keyboard similar to that of a piano, and not by hitting the bells themselves, as many think. The keyboard, only slightly wider than a typewriter, is located in the northwest corner of the Morris Dailey auditorium balcony.

The carillon bells are sealed in a black box situated beside the keyboard. Their sounds are amplified and sent out through loudspeakers placed at the four corners of the tower.

"The chimes must be played slowly," Miss Kimzey explained, "because notes coming from the speakers will mingle and make only a loud noise if the songs are played too fast."

Mrs. Lydia Boothby, assistant professor of music, has announced that all requests from organizations or individuals regarding songs to be played are welcomed. She said all interested parties should contact her and that requests have to be approved by President MacQuarrie.

Hartranft Asks Students To Aid Athletic Relations

Glenn Hartranft, head of the Men's Physical Education department, said yesterday that since San Jose State college has become a major athletic school, "the problem is to uphold our major status."

Mr. Hartranft made this statement in the Morris Dailey auditorium yesterday morning while addressing 750 freshman orientation students on "Spartan Records and Traditions."

He stated that "it takes time to get stronger, but our teams are getting a little better in every sport every year. That is now our ambition."

He urged students to support the college's athletic teams, win or lose.

Mr. Hartranft warned the students to avoid destruction of property in overemphasizing school spirit. He cited two examples of what-not-to-do to the property of our football rivals.

He revealed that fist fight and garbage throwing display on the Santa Clara university chapel did much to sever athletic relations with the Broncos in 1937. Friendly football relations with the county rivals were not renewed until two years ago. "Loss of this game would take $15,000 right out of our pockets," he said.

The physical education director also mentioned that if Stanford cancels its annual game with this college because of the recent field-burning incident "it would mean a loss of $8,000."

Mr. Hartranft urged the freshman orientation class to always keep a "friendly" relationship with San Jose State college's opponents in athletics.

If you lift a manhole cover in the basement of a building on busy Commercial Street in Boston, you can enter a tunnel through which pirates brought their booty from the harbor to the city nearly three centuries ago.

VA Promises Checks in Nov.

Veterans who have been visualizing horse-meat filets as their cuisine and burlap as their wardrobe due to lack of funds can stop worrying.

President T. W. MacQuarrie yesterday received assurance from the Veteran's administration in San Francisco that 95 per cent of all San Jose State college veterans will get their subsistence checks by Dec. 7. Assurances were made by C. C. Warr, chief of the vocational rehabilitation and education division of the VA in San Francisco.

In the letter to Dr. MacQuarrie, Warr reported that rumors that checks might be delayed until Jan. 1 were erroneous.

Carr said that 20 per cent of the veterans will receive their checks by Nov. 1, 45 per cent by Nov. 9 and 75 per cent by Nov. 23.

"We are keenly aware of the importance of getting out subsistence checks promptly and are doing everything administratively possible to speed up their issuance," Robert P. Shields, regional manager of the V. A., stated in a communication enclosed with Carr's letter.
